Hospice. Teams of 4, €20 per team.

St. Mary's Hall, Kincasslagh

Bingo on Friday night at 8.30 p.m. in aid of Keadue Rovers FC.

On behalf of the parish I would like to wish Adrian Ward all the very best as he once again makes his way to Haiti to help with the ongoing crisis out there. Bringing his own very particular set of skills, he goes with our prayers and financial aid to help the poorest of the poor.

My sincere thanks to the Whist Club in Kincasslagh Hall for their donation of €400 towards church funds, which will go towards the painting of the Chapel and the repair of storm glazing and window which cost €2,830 recently at St. Mary's Church

Knock, Women of the Well

A weekend retreat for Women, a chance to connect and engage with some of the most inspiring women from scripture, offering moments of prayer, reflection and sharing in an atmosphere of creativity, in the prayer guidance centre at Knock Shrine from Friday 15th Sunday 17th April. Letd by Moira McDowell and Una Allen. Cost €60 inc. lunch. Registration at 7.30 p.m. on Friday 15th April. To book call 094 93 88100.

Brainiacs!

Congratulations to Holly, Jamie, Zach and Owen from Scoil Mhuire Belcruit who have qualified for the All Ireland Final of the Credit Union Schools Quiz. We wish the team the best of luck in the final in the RDS in Dublin this Sunday, 10th April.

Photo Exhibition

As part of a new research project, researchers from Robert Gordon University's Aberdeen

Business School are holding a photo exhibition at Donegal Airport next week.

Researchers, Dr Graeme Baxter and Lyndsay Bloice are exploring the social and cultural importance of small airports such as Donegal Airport. The project, called Smart Peripheral and Remote Airports (SPARA 2020) brings together partners from Scotland, Ireland, Sweden, Norway and Australia in order to deliver increased innovation within the public service provision of airports. The exhibition, which will feature both historical and more recent images of Donegal Airport and will be held on April 12-17 in the main terminal.

Commissioning of Ministers

Next weekend, we ask that ALL ministers, both new and seasoned, come to our chapels for a commissioning service. Ministers of the Word will be asked to begin or renew their responsibility just before the readings, and the Ministers of the Eucharist will be asked to begin or renew their responsibility after the sign of peace.

The annual Little Angels Remembrance Service will take place at the Church of the Irish Martyrs on Sunday 17th April at 4pm.

Thanks

On behalf of the parish I would like to thank all those who donated in St. Columba's towards the flowers for easter which were lovely, and Eileen Oglesby for her continued commitment florally to St. Mary's. The Ceremonies were very special again this year, so thanks to all who made it so.
