The Feast of the Assumption 15th August.

The commemoration of the death of the Blessed Virgin Mary (the Dormition, or falling asleep, as it was known in the East) is known as the Assumption because of the tradition that her body did not decay but that she was raised up, body and soul, into heaven. This tradition was already present in the sixth century; by the beginning of the twentieth century it was widespread; and after consulting the views of bishops all over the world, the Pope formally and infallibly declared the doctrine of the Assumption to be part of the authentic and ancient doctrine of the universal Church.

Hail, Queen most noble,
Hail Thou Mother most merciful,
Thou life's true sweetness,
Thou our hope, we greet Thee.
To Thee we're crying, from paradise banished children.
To Thee we come weeping, sorrowing and sighing in this dark and tearful valley.
Ah, turn Thine eyes,
Advocate, in mercy,
Turn in loving and kind compassion
These Thine eyes upon us sinners.
And Jesus, the blessed fruit of Thy virginal womb,
Show unto us when our exile is ended.
Thou'rt clement, Thou'rt loving, Thou art
sweet,
O Virgin Mary.

Salve Regina,
Mater Misericordiae
Vita dulcedo et spes nostra salve
Ad te clamamus, exsules filii Hevae
Ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes
In hac lacrimarum valle Eia, ergo, advocata nostra illos tuos misericordes oculos
ad nos converte
Et Iesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui
Nobis post hoc exilium ostende
O clemens, O pia, O dulcis,
Virgo Maria
