This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday. Many people throughout the world have been praying a novena since Good Friday until Saturday 11th in the lead up to this feast. There will be a service at 3 pm in St. Columba's Church to mark this day, with Benediction, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, and confessions available for those who wish to avail of the indulgence granted for this occasion. On this eve of Divine Mercy Sunday, in St. Peter's Basilica, the Pope will officially convoke the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy with the publication of the Bull of Indiction, "Misericordiae vultus". The Jubilee Bull constitutes the basic document for understanding the spirit in which it was convoked, as well as Pope Francis' intentions and the fruit he hopes the Year will bear.
