Baptisms take place in our parish each Saturday at 5.00 p.m.

They take place in Acres on the 1st and Third Saturdays of the month and in Kincasslagh on the Second and fourth Saturdays of the month. On the occasion of a 5th Saturday in the month, Baptisms will be where requested first.

The Child is becoming part of the Christian community in its baptism, and so we would be happy to include the baptism at any of the weekend masses.

Weddings

Weddings can be booked for St. Mary's Belcruit, or St. Columba's, Lackenagh by contacting the Parochial House, Lackenagh at 074 9542006 or Emailing info@kincasslagh.ie

Please note that at least three months notice is required.

In preparing for your wedding you need to complete the following requirements

Pre Nuptial Enquiry Form

The Church has a set form that all people wishing to get married in the church need to complete.

You need to get these papers filled in by the priest in the parish you are currently living in, and have been for at least six months. He will require an up to date copy of your baptismal certificate; that is, issued after booking the wedding. The baptismal Certificate will be available from the parish in which you were baptised. He will also require a certificate of your confirmation, if this information is not included on your baptismal certificate. He may require a letter of freedom from any other parishes you lived in since you reached the canonical age from marriage. This letter states that you did not marry while in that parish. In some cases, you may be asked for a sworn affidavit to prove you have never been married before.

Notice to the Civil Registrar.

Since 2007, the civil registrar has to be informed about your forthcoming wedding. They also require three months notice. You can contact them at:

Civil registration Office,
Tirconnaill House,
Letterkenny,
Co. Donegal
074 9123771

if you live locally, or you can contact one closer to where you normally live in other parts of Ireland. They will ask to meet you face to face and you need to bring photographic ID with you in the form of Passport, Driving license, etc. There is a fee for this service. They will give you the document that will be signed on the day of your wedding. This document is your responsibility and you need to ensure that it gets to the church on the day, and that it gets back to the registrar within one month. It may be prudent to give one trusted person sole responsibility for this document.

Planning your Ceremony

You can plan your wedding with the priest who has agreed to conduct your ceremony. He can furnish you with readings for your wedding and help you construct the ceremony.

Pre Marriage Course

Couples are required to complete a pre marriage course before their wedding. Details of such courses can be found at www.accord.ie

From the Diocesan Office

Dear Father,

Just a reminder that if you have couples who are going to get married abroad they must have the paper work done at least two months in advance. They must also provide the full name of the priest who will officiate and the address of the Church of Marriage.

The name and address of the Diocese to which the papers are to be sent for the Nihil Obstat must also be given.

Due to the increase in the cost of postage, each couple needs to be asked to cover the cover of postage. The suggested contribution is €5 to accompany all papers going abroad.

With kind regards,
Diocesan Secretary
