Make your Coppers go the Extra Mile !

Irish Wheelchair Association are running their 'Make your Coppers go the Extra Mile' campaign asking all supporters, families & friends to donate their coppers. All funds which are donated as part of IWA's 'Make you Coppers go the Extra Mile' will go towards replenishing our bus fleet.

We are asking all individuals to drop their copper coins (or any coins) into their local IWA ROC (Resource & Outreach Centre), into our IWA Charity Shop Or Contact Mary

McGrenra, Service Co-Ordinator, on 074 91-57393 or 087-7448184 and we can arrange a collection point.

Leaving Certs

We pray for those who received their results this week for the leaving certificate. As decisions are being made for your future, we earnestly pray that each of you will find happiness in the career, studies or job you choose. To those who didn't get what they wanted, remember that many people thank God for the times He didn't answer their prayers, because they wouldn't have what they have now if He did.

Welcome

Little Iarlaith Daniel Mulholland waited patiently for the priest who eventually turned up to welcome him into the fold!
