Social Morning through Irish in Teach Neil O'Donáill, Loughanure. Commencing 23rd February 2016 11am to 12.30pm for 6 weeks. If you have any skills as knitting, crochet, carpentry, creel making etc., bring them along with you. This is a good opportunity for both men and women to improve their conversational Irish skills. Admission is Free.

The Cloth of Sorrows is an idea we wish to continue this Lent. A cloth will be formed, made up of individual pieces of material, each piece representing something that has disturbed your life, i.e., bereavement, sickness, addiction, relationship difficulties, or something else particular to you. These pieces will be sewn together into one cloth. You may or may not choose to write something on your piece. All pieces can be left at a basket at the back of Both Churches from now until Palm Sunday. The sewn cloth will be presented on Good Friday and draped around the foot of the cross. Symbolically we will be coupling our pain with the pain endured by our saviour. Each individual piece of cloth should be eight inches by eight.

All welcome.

SVP Shop Dungloe

We want to thank you for your generosity with toys to our premises over the Christmas season and since. It has been a great asset to our work and to the wellbeing of our community. However at this moment, our need for these wonderful gifts has gone, and we need the storage space for other projects, so we ask you to stop bringing toys to the Dungloe shop for the time being. We will be pleased to advise when the time is right to begin this appeal again in future. Thank you again for your help and generosity.

Your sin is not greater than God's mercy.
