St Patricks Day celebrations Burtonport

Well done and thank you to everyone who played a part in making St Patricks day in Burtonport a fun and festive occasion. To Burtonport Community Centre staff and volunteers for setting up, helping out on the day and tidying up, to the individuals and the businesses in the Rosses and beyond for donating the prizes, food and table wear, to the local schools for the art work, to the music and dance teachers for enabling our musicians, band members and dancers to preform so well on the day, to the Cdp, local papers and our parish bulletin for all printing and advertising, to Anne Kelly & her staff at The Lobster Pot, for cooking the Irish Stew, to Mary Rodgers for keeping a pictorial record of the day, to our entertainers on the day - Cundy, Joe & Brendan, The Crickamore band, Eilish Boyle Irish dancers, new local trad group "Réaltaí", The Keadue Band, Claire Gallagher school of dance and the amazing "Trad Na nÓG". To Patrick Crean for being St Patrick and to everyone who turned up on the day to enjoy the event and spend their money. Winner of The Leprechaun Hunt was Millie Hanlon Keadue and winner of the hamper was Ann (Cashel Ard) Boyle, Keadue. The takings have been counted but expenses have yet to be deducted. It looks like the community has raised in and around 4000 but an exact figure will be provided once we know ourselves. Once again, this money will be divided equally between the local lifeboat fund, The Community Centre and The Burtonport festival fund. Thank you so much everyone for a great day.

Welcome

A big welcome for this wee man that I baptised in Letterkenny Hospital when he was a couple of days old. He was in brilliant form when his parent's brought him to the church for the rite of 'Bringing a baptised child into the church'. You're a star, Lorcan Christopher McDevitt!
