Welcome

Please Welcome Father Marydasan to our parish. Fr. Marydasan is a Carmelite priest from India and is currently studying in Rome. Last year and this year he has spent his summer holidays in Donegal helping out in our parishes and will be with us for the next two weekends. As he sits here discussing the intricacies of faith and learning with Fr. Matt, I made the coffee! We wish him well in his time with us and in his further studies.

Bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience.

Father Matt McInerney opened the 39th Annual Burtonport Festival.

As the parish learned that Nora was not well and Manus would not be able to open the festival as hoped, Fr. Matt graciously took his place and opened the festival this year. Our thoughts and prayers are with Manus and the family at her passing.

Welcome

Both little Emmet James O'Neill and his dad Michael received Gods Grace at a lovely ceremony in St. Mary's last weekend. Emmet was baptised into the Church and his dad received the sacrament of Confirmation. Well done to the two of you. And of course to Denise for making it all happen!

Welcome

We also welcomed little Rylee Darren Gallagher into the fold and he was a gem, quietly contemplating the road ahead of him.

St. Bernadette

Having been to Nevers in France recently I had the opportunity to view the body of St. Bernadette whose body lies waiting for the kingdom, unscathed by the corruption of death. A truly peaceful and holy experience in which I prayed for the needs of our parish.
