Community Text Alert Public Meeting

There will be a public meeting in St Columba's Community Centre, Burtonport on Monday 28th September at 8.30pm. In attendance will be Brian Carr from Glenties who will brief us on the way that Community Text Alert works, also on the night you will have the opportunity to registrar for this worthwhile service at a fee of €10.00 per year. It is of great importance that the younger generation of both Kincasslagh/Burtonport Communities attends, as you are the more vigilant members to the happenings and changes in our community.

Our Parish Refugee Response

I am on leave for two weeks now so I would ask those who have names and mobile numbers for pledges to our parish refugee response to get them to me, preferably by email in the next two weeks. I currently have almost 100 names through social media myself so I think our target of having 200 pledges is well and truly underway. The bank details for those who want to pay electronically or drop in to the bank are as follows, Name of Account: Kincasslagh Church
BIC is BOFIE2D
IBAN is IE19 BOFI 9048 7843 2207 08
Bank of Ireland, Dungloe, Co. Donegal
SORT CODE is 90 48 78
Please remember to add your name so we know whose pledge it is!

If this isn't your way, there will be a volunteer in the chapel after Mass taking pledges and names and mobile numbers of those who want to get a text update. They will do this for two weeks. After that you can put your pledge in an envelope with name and we'll record it for you.

The schools also have been asked to make a pledge and will have a collection box for each child who wants to pledge up to €1 a week! We may not host a family in the area, but with this help I am seeking ways to host a family in Ireland, or abroad, and therefore answer Pope Francis' tweet on the previous column.

Good Luck Daniel!
