Welcome

Baby Caodhla Shovlin (the post) was in great singing form at her christening last weekend in Kincasslagh. We enjoyed her delight immensely!

Blessed are they who understand faltering step and palsied hand.

Blessed are they who know that my ears today must strain to catch the things they say.

Blessed are they who seem to know that my eyes are dim and my wits are slow.

Blessed are they who looked away when coffee spilled at table today.

Blessed are they with a cheery smile who stop and chat for a little while.

Blessed are they who never say, "you have told that story twice today".

Blessed are they who know the ways to bring back memories of yesterday.

Blessed are they who make it known that I'm loved, repected and not alone.

Blessed are they who know I'm at a loss to find the strength to carry the cross.

Blessed are they who ease the days of my journey home in loving ways.

The Rosses Genealogy Project will hold a graveyard information day in the Old Graveyard adjacent to St Mary's Church Kincasslagh on Tuesday May 2nd between 10am and 2pm.
