Puddle Splashers is an outdoor venue which has been set up at The Shed (Near the Gweedore Road Entrance) on The River Walk in Dungloe. Its aim is to introduce Parents to the rewards "Play in Nature" gives to the developing child. We have two sessions remaining which take place on Monday mornings from 10 - 12. June 19th & 26th. It'd be lovely to see you there. Don the wellies and wet gear on whatever the weather and join us for some morning fun.

Water Safety Dates - Keadue & Cruit

Irish Water Safety run courses in and around the country throughout the year. In the summer months (July & August) they bring some of their courses aimed at promoting the skills of swimming and lifesaving to rural areas including The Rosses which you and your family (Aged 4+) are invited to participate in. Dates for Keadue & Cruit are confirmed as follows: Week 1- July 17th

- 21st. Week2: August 14 - 18.

Email rossesocialprescribing@gmail.com or check out our FaceBook page "Rosses Water Safety" for further details.

Comhghairdeas

Wishing the beautiful Marie Boyle and her husband Rory Durcan every future happiness after a lovely ceremony in St. Columba's Church last weekend!

Many thanks to the Welcome Centre for inviting in those who joined the procession this weekend to the harbour for a refreshment after the walk.

And for preparing the Grotto with flowers and preparing the Garden of Remembrance.
