Bethlehem Cross

This beautiful cross, carved from olive wood, was made in Bethlehem by Christian families who are feeling the effects of the downturn in tourism to their area which has resulted in a difficult time for their parish and indeed all Christian families. Mr. Gerald Rice has taken it upon himself to help the Christian Community in Bethlehem by selling their crosses in Ireland. Each cross costs €20, €9 of which goes to the artist, €6 to the parish of Bethlehem, and €5 for Mr. Rice's expenses here in Ireland. There are a limited number available in the parish now and can be seen or bought at the sacristy or the parochial house. For more info check out www.kincasslagh.ie

Mass in Cruit

Weather permitting as always, there will be a Mass at Darrens memorial at Cruit on Friday 29th August at 7.00 p.m. All welcome.

Congratulations

The parish extends its heartiest congratulations to Declan Gallagher and Suzanna Campbell on their recent wedding in St. Columba's Church.

Thanks

The Donegal Association of Parents and Friends of People with Intellectual Disabilities would like to thank everyone for their generosity at the recent Church Gate Collections. Acres €279.72 and Kincasslagh €312.35. Thank you.

Ecumenical Prayer Service

Those from the Lower Rosses who died as a result of World Wars will be commemorated at a series of events to be held in Annagry Community Hall. The commemoration will begin on Monday evening August 25th with an Ecumenical Service at 7.30pm, followed by the opening of a 5-day exhibition run in conjunction with Donegal County Museum. On Saturday August 30th there will be a unique display of photos, medals, diaries, letters etc. relating to the local men who fought. In this area a heavy price was paid with thirty six men known to have died in the WW1, several more in WW2 along with the civilian victims of the Ballymanus Mine in May 1943. In all it is estimated that many hundreds of persons were caught up in the upheaval in some way or another. If you have material that you would like to display contact 087 1935066 or email carrickfin@gmail.com. Personal memorabilia will be displayed for only one day only in a secure environment.

Congratulations

The parish wishes Leanna O'Donnell and Darren Gallagher every success in their future together after their beautiful ceremony in St. Mary's recently.

Visitation

The sick and housebound will be visited with Holy Communion this Thursday and Friday. If you or a neighbour would like to be included on this visitation with Holy Communion please contact the Parochial House. Also please ensure that the priest can gain access to the home, and please contact the house if you will not be available to receive the sacrament at these times. Thank you.
