Confirmation

Next week the Bishop will visit our parish to confirm 13 children in Arranmore on Saturday, and then 50 children in Kincasslagh at noon on Sunday. The children have been preparing meticulously for this event, at school, in the You Shall Be My Witnesses programme and at home with their parents. Just this week they went to Ards

Friary for a retreat with the Franciscan Sisters of the Renewal, an impressive bunch of ladies who along with giving retreats, reach out to the marginalized in our society, the drug addict, the alcoholic, the homeless, as Jesus instructed us.

The candidates were impressed with them, as many of our children have never met a religious sister before.

It wasn't all work in that beautiful spot, they had time to go to the beach.

All in all they had a lovely day and they are truly a fine group of young people.

Please pray for them as they prepare themselves for this big moment in their young lives.

And for these 26 candidates for First Eucharist

They too have been preparing at home, at school and in the parish. They have been part of the Do This in Memory programme throughout the year in St. Mary's Church. They have faith friends who have prayed for them all year in the parish, people who picked out their name and promised to pray for that child.

This weekend they have received the gift of the Eucharist for the first time. We are proud of them and this huge milestone in their faith development.
