Blessing of Graves

Thank you to all who took part in the recent blessing of the graves in our parish. Special thanks to those who sang, read, and to the excellent work of the stewards who looked after parking for the ever increasing amount of cars at this special parish event. The Arranmore blessing takes place this Sunday at 3.00 p.m.

Festival Success

Congratulations to the organisers of the 41st Annual Burtonport Festival, which was an entirely enjoyable occasion for locals and visitors alike. There was a great feeling around during the festivities, created by the hard work of the Committee. Even our FaceBook literary critic could not really fault the successful outcome of the entire event. Well Done to all concerned.

AUGUST CAMINO (walk) TO KERRYTOWN from St. Marys and St. Columbas on the 20th of August, to commemorate the centenary of Fatima.

Anyone who would like to join us at the rock, and will need a lift can contact Roseleen or Mary to make an arrangement.

A meeting to prepare for this will take place in St. Columba's Church after 10.00 a.m. on Thursday 10th August. All welcome.

Volunteers needed to carry biers, lead walks, and general help.

If you would like to help out, contact Mary at 9543376/ 087 7732201 or Roseleen at 9542102/087 2456257.

Owey Island

There will be a meeting in St. Mary's hall Kincasslagh on Saturday the 19th of August at 3pm for property (land and houses) owners on Owey island, with a view to set up an island committee and to discuss any other issues.

Burtonport Festival draw will take place in McDaid's bar on Friday 11th August. Due to the wet weather at the end of the festival we didn't get selling the tickets so have decided that if we can get a few cars together we will go around to sell them before the draw anyone available to help can let us know.

Faillte

The Community welcomes little Aine Mai Gallagher into its ranks in her baptism in St. Columba's last weekend. We promised God to bring her up knowing that He loves her.

Mass at the Mass rock, Kincasslagh

This year on the feast of the Assumption, it is hoped, weather permitting to have our Mass at the Spink in Belcruit at 7.00 p.m. in memory of Dan and Annie McGarvey. Once a place of worship out of fear and necessity, we can revisit this holy rock with fear of nothing save the midgies and the rain. I would ask the choir to consider joining us with marian hymns for this occasion.
