The Adoration schedule in St. Columba's

Church has been reviewed. Whilst many people visit the Blessed Sacrament, not so many commit to the various hours during the Tuesday period. So from this week, Adoration will start at 10.00 a.m. as usual but finish at 7.00 p.m. with the Rosary and Divine Mercy Chaplet recited at 6.30 p.m. Please contact Rosaleen on 087 245 6257 for the hours of 10-3 and Tony on 087 383 2935 for the 3-7 times. St. Columba's Church will be celebrating 30 years of committed adoration in November, which is a massive achievement. Thank you to all who have committed to an hour with the Lord in this time and for those subs and people who drop in to say a prayer.

Painting

St. Columba's Church will be closed for painting from Monday to Friday of the weeks of September, beginning on Monday third until Friday 21st. Weekend Masses will take place as usual. I would advise people that any funerals will need to take place in St. Mary's in Kincasslagh during this time.

Adoration

During this time, adoration will take place as usual on the Tuesdays. But please use the side entrance to avoid going through the Chapel. Thank you.
