With hair like this Shenan's baptism was more of a struggle than usual, but he braved it out! Congrats to Patrick and Debbie on the baptism of their son.

St. Patrick's Day Celebrations

St Patrick's day preparations are well under way in Burtonport as the community pull together to host the 15th annual St. Patrick's day event in St Columbas Community Centre. As usual the St Patrick's day celebrations begin with 11.30 mass in Acres, followed by a celebration of Irish culture in the hall from 12 - 2. The community are looking for donations of gifts which could be used as prizes in the many raffles which will be run on the day. Traditional marching bands, dancers and musicians will all be performing on the day whilst refreshments of Irish stew and home baking will be available to all.

Entry is by donation on the day. Please give generously as this event doubles as a fundraiser for the local lifeboat fund, the Burtonport festival and the local community centre.
