Act of Spiritual Communion

A Prayer by St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things,

and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment

receive You sacramentally,

come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

The Rainbow Children 🌈

The history books will talk of now,

That time the world stood still.

When every family stayed at home,

Waved out from windowsills-

At those they loved but could not hold,

Because they loved them so.

Yet, whilst they did they noticed all the flowers start to grow.

The sun came out, they can recall,

And windows, rainbows filled.

They kicked a football in their yards,

Until the night drew in.

They walked each day but not too close,

That time the world stood still.

When people walked straight down the roads,

That once the cars did fill.

They saw that people became ill,

They knew the world was scared.

But whilst the world stood still they saw,

How much the whole world cared.

They clapped on Thursdays from their doors,

They cheered for the brave.

For people who would risk their lives,

So others could be saved.

The schools closed down, they missed their friends,

They missed their teachers so.

Their Mams and Dads helped with their work,

They helped their minds to grow.

The parents used to worry that,

As schools were put on hold,

Their children wouldn't have the tools,

They'd need as they grew old.

But history books will talk of them,

Now adults, fully grown.

Those little boys and girls back then,

The ones who stayed at home.

They'll tell you that they fixed this world,

Of all they would fulfil.

The RAINBOW children building dreams,

They'd dreamed whilst time stood still 🌈

Wishing you all a very happy and Holy Easter. It has been an Easter like no other. Thank the Lord for technology so that my colleagues and I were able to walk with you through the passion, death and Resurrection of Our Lord, Jesus Christ.

I am pleased that my meditations have been something that have helped so many people at this worrying time. It is an honour to invite you to leave your anxiety and worry's at the foot of the altar in St. Columba's Church.

I want to thank all who prayed with me during lent, because I have felt your presence, and have never felt alone. Thank you for your communications, some happy, some sad, often deep, often supportive. Something special happened this Lent, something bigger than the fear and worry.

Finally, thank you for the contributions to our funds, by locals arranging their envelopes be delivered, and to those who supported our parish on-line. It is welcome in a time when our usual income source has run dry.

I would like to wish you all a very happy Easter. Stay safe, and keep well.

Thank you!

Finally I would like to thank all our friends, neighbours and visitors who have holiday homes in our parish, or who come and stay here around this time in other years, for staying at home this Easter. We love you, and love having you here, and hope that you will be back soon to resume our friendships and comradery. That you listened to the best advice and stayed home means the world to us as we try to protect our vulnerable by not travelling.

In that sense, it is the easiest thing you can be asked to do... protect us, save lives, by staying away. We truly, truly appreciate the sacrifice you made, and will forever honour you with our friendship and good will! Happy Easter, wherever you are.
