Re opening of Community Centre Market/Bargain Rail

We are happy to inform our customers that we reopened again on Sunday 26th of July and on Tuesday 28th July at the usual time to great success, and will be open on subsequent Sundays' and Tuesdays'. Due to government guidelines, we will do all in our power to keep everyone safe and also to keep our staff safe and well. Wearing of masks or shields is necessary. Only two people can go into the market at a time and we ask our customers to wait in the main hall. Please note that we have to change our policy regarding dropping off your very generous items to us. Drop off's will now take place on Tuesdays between 11am and 1pm and Thursday evenings from 7pm to 8pm. We ask you not to leave bags or boxes outside our doors because of the new regulations. A big thank you for all your kindness and patience and we look forward to meeting you all soon and ask you in particular to obey social distancing. Presently because of not having adequate space, we will not be accepting books, toys, electrical items, duvets, pillows or cushions. Keep safe.

Vacancy For Scheme Worker

There's a vacancy for a scheme worker in Burtonport Community Centre. The scheme is

Communion

First Communion will take place in St. Mary's Church at 1.00 p.m. on Saturday 8th August. On Thursday 6th August we will have first confessions in St. Mary's at 7.00 pm. We will use the confessional boxes to hear the Children's Confessions with doors open if preferred.

Mass times

People have been responding positively to the re-opening of our chapels for Masses over the last few weeks. There is no Sunday obligation as yet, but it is obvious that people are creatures of habit and only the weekend Masses can be almost full. Once full, we can not admit more people into the chapels. However, the weekday Masses are generally between less than half full and if you wish to start returning to Mass I would advise that you choose one of these times.
