Annual Leave

Fr. Eddie Butler has kindly agreed to cover the two weekends that I am on leave, namely the 5th & 6th and the 12th & 13th September. Fr. Matt will cover any emergencies during this time, but stresses that if you want another priest to stand in he is more than happy to stand aside.

WISE offer a FREE training and employment service to women living in Donegal. This is co-funded by the Department of Justice & Equality & The European Social Fund. If you are looking for personal/career development, to get into work or set up your own business. Call Michelle today on 086 145 2249 for more information.

The Justice and Peace Committee, Co.

Donegal, wishes to remind us all that the "Season of Creation" begins next week (1 September- 4 October). This year's dedication is: "Cultivating Hope", a faith response to Climate Crisis. The Conference of Irish Bishops proposes some of the following actions: Set up a "Care for Creation Group" in your parish; create a biodiversity area on church grounds; plant a tree in your parish to mark the Season of Creation; host the Eco Congregation Climate Justice Candle in your parish (www.ecocongregationireland.com); work on joint actions with other Christian churches in your area (see <https://www.catholicbishops.ie>). More resources are made available by an ecumenical steering committee at: Season of Creation.
