Novena

Each year in November we turn our attention to our deceased relatives and friends, sometimes in the form of a novena of Masses. Although you may not be present this year, I invite you to join me for nine Masses beginning next Sunday, 1st November for the faithful departed. I am particularly aware of those who passed this year since our first lockdown, especially at the beginning when the funeral Mass was prayed without the remains being present. If the families would like a picture of their loved on to be displayed during the Novena, please bring one to me and I will arrange them at the Altar during these days. May they rest in peace, and may the difficult circumstances around their passing find healing.

Remember the Clocks go Back this weekend.
2 a.m. will return to 1 a.m.
