Congrats

Well done to Adele and Charlie for braving the elements today and sharing a deep and meaningful moment with us in St. Mary's Church today Saturday. Blessings!

A word of thanks to all who have continued to support the Chapels over the last while. It is indeed a strange time, and a disconcerting one. I want to thank especially those who are continuing to sanitise the Chapels during the day and keeping them as safe places to visit.
This is so appreciated by those who are aware of your commitment. Thank you.

Novena of Masses for the dead.

The novena starts on Sunday 1st November and runs until Monday 9th. I invite you to join me in this time of prayer for our deceased. There will also be a service at 3 pm on Sunday for those who passed away this year, especially those who were denied access to the chapel for their funeral Mass.

I will open St. Columba's Chapel after this service and after each Mass that I am saying this week and wait for a while in the confessional box in case anyone wishes to go to confession to complete an indulgence for the Holy Souls.

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God, no torment shall ever touch them.
In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die, their going looked like a disaster, their leaving us, like annihilation;
but they are at peace.

If they experienced punishment as men see it, their hope was rich with immortality; slight was their affliction, great will their blessings be. God has put them to the test and proved them to be worthy with him; he has tested them like gold in a furnace, and accepted them as a holocaust.
