I want to take this opportunity to thank the community for their continued support for their churches in the parish over this most difficult year and of their support for their clergy.

Coronavirus gave people a chance to step up and help as we tried to open our churches and I am so proud of the dedication and professionalism of our Covid response team. It involved 28 people who helped with ushering and cleaning and still do.

I want to thank Margaret Rose and Adrian especially for their hard work, and to our collectors and counters, our ministers of Word and Eucharist, and Anthony for his gatekeeping duties in Kincasslagh. To Eileen and Margaret Rose for the splendid display of flowers, and to 'the elves' who decorated the chapels so beautifully for the coming of the infant king. I want to thank Sonia and LIGID Léiriúcháin for helping us with our Christmas wishes online from all the Clergy of the Western Deanery and our Church of Ireland counterparts in the area.

Welcome

First we welcomed baby Fiadh Rose to the family of God in her baptism, smiling sweetly at her parents Laura and Ryan after the event and checked out Mary in the Crib.

This was followed by the Wallace twins, Shaquille and Sean, perched on the famous wedding seat that Brendan made for his beautiful bride, leaving 'room for expansion'!!!

That Paul Ferry character also called with the long suffering Niamh and we welcomed baby Cian Patrick into the fold, literally below!

And we finished 2020 by welcoming baby Cathal Daniel into the Church brought by his proud parents, Owen and Niamh.
