An Easter Thank you

I want to thank those in our Community who have kept the show on the road during these restricted and frustrating times. To our two sacristans, Margaret Rose Bonner in Burtonport and Adrian Ward in Kincasslagh for their commitment and generosity. Their work is very much appreciated.

To all our cleaners and sanitisers during the pandemic. Again your generosity to include nipping into the chapel during your busy schedules to clean and keep them safe is exemplary. Thank you.

To the Kincasslagh team who continue to look after the chapel and keep the gears greased until we get back on the road again. Thank you.

To Roseleen McShane for her attentiveness to the online community who follow her in the Rosary and Divine Mercy throughout this time, and to her grandson Michael for keeping her right! To Ursula McCready for her commitment to reading for Fr. Matt at Mass. This is a wonderful ministry in these bleak times.

To Father Matt McInerney who has looked after the Masses on Tuesday and Friday all year and who is a constant companion and advisor along the camino we have taken. You are a wonderful gift to the parish!

To Mary Rodgers for reading last night, and her husband Joe who played the guitar with Mary Ellen Hyland this morning at Mass. To Sinead for popping up and doing wonderful work in helping with bits and pieces around the chapel and organising the Cloth of Sorrows again. And to Rosie Sweeney who sewed the new pieces to the ever expanding blanket we see at the foot of the Cross.

And to all who have helped during funerals and other services along the way, thank you, including local musicians. I would like to mention Sean McGlynn and Josie and Sam for their professionalism and help.

To all to have continued to support the parish financially in these difficult times when people have to go out of their way to drop in envelopes to the Churches or have begun to make their donations online. It has been a difficult time for us financially during closure, as attendance at Mass is our main source of income. This is also true for the SVP income and for Trocaire. Both these organisations need your continued help and have an online presence where you can also make a donation. Thank you to those on our finance committee for continuing their good work.

Thank you to those not of this parish but who have joined us on our Camino, our path of pandemic pilgrimage, and who have made donations to the parish. This is very kind and most helpful.

Wishing you all a very happy Easter and please God we will soon find ourselves back in our rightful place in the pews!

The Rosses Credit Union Virtual AGM: 12 April at 7pm. To participate, contact before 8 April at info@rossescu.ie with Subject: AGM and include your name and account number.

Welcome Alleluia!

A huge welcome to Archie Boyle who joined the Christian Community in this Holy Season and congratulations to his parents Joseph and Lisa Jane on bringing him into the world and into God's family.

Alleluia once again!

And welcome to Khloe Ann McKelvey who was very attentive during his recent ceremony in St. Columba's. Congrats to James and Tara. I said 'smile!', she said 'Say something funny then!'. I failed.
