Columba (Gaelic Colm Cille) He was born in Gartan, in County Donegal, and was of royal lineage. He studied under Finnian of Moville and Finnian of Clonard. He founded monasteries at Derry, Durrow, and possibly Kells, before leaving Ireland as a missionary, "an exile for Christ." His greatest foundation was Iona, from where he converted much of western Scotland, and his followers took the Gospel as far as northern England. He died at Iona in 597. He was renowned as a poet and scribe as well as a spiritual guide. In Gaelic literature he appears as Ireland's most popular saint, noted for his great personal love of all creatures, both human and animal.

Colmcille1500 celebrates the life and legacy of Colmcille or Columba, 1500 years from his birth. It promotes the heritage of the saint whose abbey of Iona linked Ireland and Scotland and beyond.

The 7th of December is the traditional birthday of Colmcille, and the commemoration opened officially on the 7th December 2020. Events have taken place in Donegal, Derry in Kells, Argyll, and in the Western Isles, many of them online. There are many partners. New projects are coming forward, adapting, as appropriate, to the constraints of COVID. There will be opportunities to take part in activities throughout 2021, into 2022, and, it is hoped, in years to come.

1500 years ago travel was slow and dangerous, but community and communication were just as real. Iona was not in the centre of any kingdom, but it drew speakers of many languages: Scottish and Irish Gaelic, Pictish, Latin, Welsh and the Anglo-

Saxon of Northumbria. The heritage of Colmcille in spiritual matters, in language in the arts and learning spread throughout these islands and into the continent of Europe.

Items for inclusion in the Newsletter should be forwarded to the parochial house by Thursday @ 6.00 p.m. Thank you.

The Irish Catholic will be on sale at the back of the chapels, initially with 10 copies in each chapel. It can be obvious that there is no voice for Catholics in Ireland and indeed that any voice is usually negative whether justified or not. This is an informative and objective newspaper which will help those interested in matters of the faith to keep up to date. €2.50

The SVP Shop in Dungloe is pleased to announce its reopening on Wednesday 9th June, initially from 10 am – 3pm. on Wednesday and 11 am – 3pm Thursday and Friday. Additional Volunteers to help in the shop would be greatly appreciated to extend opening hours. Call 087 065 1075.

Welcome

A lovely wee celebration of this new life and his entry into the family of God! Welcome Odhrán!
