Buddy Seat

This Sunday, in commemoration of St. Columba/Cholmcille, there will be the unveiling of a Buddy Seat or friendship seat, Suíochán an Chairdis, in the parish complex, a place where people can go to chat, sit, rest, think, and maybe meet with a like-minded traveller and share a bit of human contact. At the end of 11.30 Mass, there will be a short address in the Chapel and afterwards, those present will gather at the seat for its unveiling and the final blessing of the Mass will take place. There will be refreshments served in the Centre afterwards, with artwork that the children of our schools have been working on with Brian Byrne and Mary Rodgers. The seat is part of an initiative of the Pleanála Teanga na Rosann Irish Language Plan.
