Special Collection for Ukraine: The Irish Bishops have asked for a Special Collection to be taken up at Masses on the weekend of 26/27 March to support humanitarian efforts in Ukraine and especially the families and children who have had to flee their homeland in advance of the Russian invasion. The proceeds of this Special Collection will be directed to Caritas Internationalis, which is the helping hand of the Church on the ground in the Ukraine and the surrounding region. Please be as generous as you can. Thank you.

TEA PARTY

On Sunday 20th March from 3-5pm the much awaited Rosses V.I.P.s China tea party takes place in Burtonport Community Centre. All proceeds will be divided between St. Cholmcille national school Acres and Rosses V.I.P.s (visually impaired person) support group Burtonport. There will be a great selection of goodies, home baking etc served and what better way to spend a Sunday afternoon. The art exhibition which was done by our local schools under the direction of local artist Brian Byrne as part of the Cholmcille 1500 celebration will be on display and is a credit to all children who participated. Entertainment will be provided by Acres school children. We ask all attending to wear your mask when entering the centre. Beidh cead mile failte romhaibh.

Next weekend, at the 11.30 a.m. Sunday Mass only, we will welcome Mr Jim Deeds, a facilitator, who will speak to us at Mass about an exciting initiative for our Parish and the other local Parishes. This initiative will involve an invitation to form Parish Pastoral Councils in our local Parishes. Indeed, the Diocesan Pastoral Plan that will be launched on Thursday 31st March in the Cathedral and in the Parishes the following weekend, will call for Parish Pastoral Councils to be formed in every Parish willing to do so. Jim will speak to us about Parish Pastoral Councils and about the programme we will be invited to take part in.
