Leave of Absence

As many of you may know I am in need of medical attention and will be unavailable for a time. With the approval of the bishop and after meeting with the Pastoral Council, the following arrangements are in place.

- Weekend cover arranged.
- Fr. Matt to continue to say Mass on Tuesday & Friday in St. Columba's Church.
- Fr. Matt to offer Novena of Masses for the deceased from 1st to 9th November in St. Columba's.
- In the event of a death, members of the PPC will liaise with families and help organise readings, prayers, and music
- They will also liaise with Sean McGlynn who has agreed to find a priest to conduct the funeral.
- Marian Rodgers has kindly agreed to put our bulletin together. Items for inclusion can be sent only to frpatward@gmail.com as she has access to that.
- If you wish for someone to be included in the prayers, or book a Mass, please send request to the above email, or text the new number above, 085 876 9227. A member of the PPC will have access to that phone and the parish diary. Also, the parochial house number will also be forwarded to that phone.

RAILWAY WALK

HELP NEEDED for The 2023 Burtonport

HALLOWEEN SPOOKTACULAR EVENT

The committee of, The Burtonport Railway Walk, would like to hold their Annual Spooktacular Event this year on Friday 27th October 2023 (Registration from 6.30) but will need your help to be able to do so in a manner that is both fun and safe for all. This annual event, which in the past has included:

- Decorating both the railway walk and the community centre,
- Hosting both a pumpkin and a fancy dress competition,
- Organising & facilitating crafting activities and traditional Halloween games,
- Organising refreshments and tidying up,

is a much loved event in the Burtonport calendar as well as a much needed, annual fundraiser for The Burtonport Railway Walk. Many of the old organisers are no longer in a position to help out and we are therefore asking for your support with some element of this event so that this much loved event can continue.

A meeting will be held on Monday 23rd of October at 8.30pm in Burtonport Community Centre to finalize the arrangements for the walk. We would ask as many people as possible to attend.
