Welcome

The Community rejoiced in the nativity of the Lord and we joined in these families in their rejoicing at the birth of their own beautiful babies. Michael and Emma welcomed Kate Lorna (above) and Brendan and Kimberley welcomed Kylene Chantel.

Congrats

Congrats to Máistir Andreas who spent many years in Keadue NS and his wife Lisa at their recent wedding in Killymard after Christmas.

Congrats also to Christopher McBride and Theresa O'Donnell who were married in St.

Columba's Church on Saturday 30th. Wishing both couples every future happiness.

Priest warns Christian plight 'ignored' following Christmas killings in Nigeria

The Irish Catholic newspaper has been at the forefront of Catholic journalism in Ireland, and the number one news source for Irish Catholics across the globe, for over 130 years. With Catholic ideals guiding our reporting, we have always been relegated to a niche, faith-filled corner of mainstream journalism. But that hasn't stopped us from taking on a rapidly changing media landscape and continuing to serve our readers through our digital newspaper, annual pilgrimages to the Holy Land, regular podcast and social media channels.

But a gradual decline in Catholic practice has caused us to reach our out to you for your support.

Your contribution will enable us to continue our quality journalism, bringing local and global news of Catholic interest to you every week, without fail.
