If you ever wonder why Fr. Matt is particularly perky these days it is because it is angling season! He won second prize at the recent Dinney Sweeney Memorial Competition in Loughanure. 1st was Paul McKelerny, 3rd Harry Whoriskey, 4th Paul Forbes and 5th James Friel.

Blessing of the RNLI Station

Dean Liz Fitzgerald returned to the parish to help us offer the ecumenical blessing at the opening ceremony of the RNLI station in Arranmore, an impressive €1.4m edifice which will serve the Donegal coast for years to come. Fr. John Attoh, Fr. John Joe Duffy, Rev. Michael Classon, Fr Liam Boyle and Fr. Pat Ward also participated. We enjoyed the hospitality of the island and shared with them the joy of this important building on our island. Well done to all concerned and wishing Jimmy Early, Coxswain a very happy retirement.
